In Appreciation

Using the theme, "Yesterday and Today," the 1972 yearbook staff wishes to express their appreciation to the past administrators, faculty, staff, and students who have given of their time and energy in developing our college into an outstanding institution. We recognize the foresight and efforts of the Board of Trustees whose visions have become realities.

Though the College itself is an excellent testimony to the efforts of its builders, the 1972 HORIZONS adds this written word of appreciation.

In Memoriam

We sought them in vain,

For we know not where.

We missed their smiles,

So willingly shared.

We sought them in vain,

And we silently wept.

Then we looked in our hearts

... and found ...

They'd never left.

Bill "Red" Monroe

Vocational-Technical Center

Mr. M. R. Thorne

Dedication

We dedicate the 1972 yearbook to Mr. Murray Reid Thorne. Having given thirteen years of service to our institution, he has been largely responsible for the tremendous growth of the Vocational-Technical Program which he directs. His enthusiastic efforts and abundant energy have made many of his goals possible.

We extend our appreciation and thanks to Mr. Thorne and recognize him by dedicating the HORIZONS to him.

Student Life

Live in the active voice, rather than in the passive. Think more about what you make happen than what is happening to you.

Live in the present tense, facing the duty at hand without regret for the past or worry over the future.

Live in the singular number, caring more for the approval of your own conscience than for the applause of the crowd.

William DeWitt Hyde

Administration

Each day I learn more
Than I teach;
I learn that half knowledge of another's life
Leads to false judgment;
I learn that there is a surprising kinship
In human nature;
I learn that it's a wise father who knows his own son;
I learn that what we expect, we get;
I learn that there's more good than evil in this world;
That age is a question of spirit;
I learn how much there is to learn.

Virginia Clark

Some dreams, be they night or day,
Brightly appear, but briefly stay -
Flit through the mind on butterfly wings,
Fragile, elusive, impractical things.

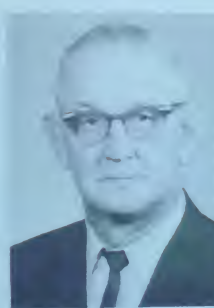

Others are made of sterner stuff -
Wings with a texture strong and tough.
These are the dreams that linger on
Night after night and dawn upon dawn.
These are the dreams that dare to see
Man and his world as they ought to be.
Dreams with wings that turn the wheel
Of Progress- wings with frames of steel!

Classes

I held a moment in my hand,
Brilliant as a star,
Fragile as a flower,
A shiny sliver out of one hour.

I dropped it carelessly.
I knew not
I held opportunity.

I found a twenty-dollar bill when I was ten.
I bought a cardboard circus and a fountain pen
and a jackknife because I never had one before.

I was rich in those days; for a week I had everything.

Two Symbols To Remember!

Jackson

As we go through life, symbols often serve to guide us. Here's two you'll want to remember:

Reddy Kilowatt, meaning your friendly electric servant . . . and the Gold Medallion, signifying the finest in total electric living. Remember them!
